

Name _____ Date _____ Period _____

Turn of the Century Advertisement

Directions: Create an illustrated poster advertising one of the following: the opening of a new subway or bridge, a new department store, a sporting event, a vaudeville show, or the release of a new record. Your poster should persuade people of the importance of the event. Remember, these are NEW things—let people know about the new technology or innovation involved. Your poster should generate interest and excitement! Use color.